| At the Council Meeting of August 17, 2010: | Read Ordinance No. 2010-22 for the final time by title only and adopt. |

ACTION SUMMARY:

The purpose of this ordinance is to transfer the three functional sections of Chapter 9-02, Miscellaneous Traffic Regulations, to Chapter 9-01, Traffic Code, and then repeal Chapter 9-02, Miscellaneous Traffic Regulations in its entirety.

DISCUSSION:

Background/History:

Pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes § 28-626(B)(2) the City of Flagstaff may "adopt additional traffic regulations" that are not in conflict with chapters 3, 4 or 5 of Title 28 [Traffic and Vehicle Regulation, Driving Under the Influence and Penalties and Procedures for Vehicle Violations]. Although A.R.S. § 28-627 grants local authorities the power to enact additional, narrowly defined regulations governing the streets and highways under their jurisdiction, for purposes of regulating vehicles and the general movement of traffic the City can only adopt ordinances (i) if they are not in conflict with those statutes found in Chapter 3, 4 and 5 of Title 28; and (ii) only if they constitute "additional traffic regulations" that supplement those statutes currently found in chapters 3, 4 or 5 of Title 28.

Nine of the seventeen sections sought to be repealed were adopted on April 8, 1940 as one part of Ordinance No. 321, Traffic Regulations, an ordinance "regulating traffic and travel upon the public streets of the City of Flagstaff." The language of all the sections but one has remained unchanged since the day they were enacted. The exception, 9-02-001-0011, Racing, which presently applies only to vehicles, originally prohibited the "immoderate, riding, driving or racing of horses through or upon any street in the City." The remainder of the sections comprising Chapter 9-02 appear to have been added at various periods throughout Flagstaff's history. Section 9-02-001-0016, Train Obstructing Streets, has an "Ord. 1296, 2-7-84" attribution, which would lead one to believe that it was enacted on February 7, 1984 pursuant to Ordinance No. 1296. However, Section 9-02-001-0016 was actually adopted on May 7, 1913 as part of Ordinance No. 150. The remainder of the sections are almost all attributable to the "Municipal Code of the City of Flagstaff, 1960," the first codification of the City's laws, where pre-existing ordinances were merged with newly created ordinances to create the City's first comprehensive municipal code.

As mentioned above, local authorities are empowered to enact legislation regulating the control and movement of traffic within their jurisdiction if it is not in conflict with specific chapters of A.R.S. Title 28, and only if those regulations constitute additions or supplements to the State statutes currently in force. In the case of Chapter 9-02, Miscellaneous Traffic Regulations, the justification for repealing all but two of the ordinances is that, far from constituting additions or supplements to the State's Traffic Code, the regulations simply replicate the prohibitions already found in Title 28. For example, Section 9-02-001-0006, Driving through Safety Zone, states that "no vehicle shall at any time be driven through or within a safety zone." The corresponding State statute, A.R.S. § 28-734, Driving through Safety Zone, states "a person shall not drive through or within a safety zone." Apart from having the same title, both regulations prohibit the exact same conduct, driving through or within a safety zone. Another example, Section 9-02-001-0001, Limitation on Backing, states "the driver of a vehicle shall not back the same unless the movement can be made with reasonable safety and without interfering with traffic," while the State regulation, A.R.S. § 28-891, Backing Limitation, states that the "driver of a vehicle shall not back the vehicle unless the movement can be made with reasonable safety and without interfering with other traffic." Again, and as the attached chart amply demonstrates, the City's ordinances do not act as additions to what State statute currently prohibits. Instead, the City's ordinances simply imitate their better worded and more precise Title 28 counterparts.

The two ordinances whose justification for repeal differs from the rationale provided above are Section 9-02-001-0007, Parking near Curb, and 9-02-001-0016, Train Obstructing Streets. The former requires that no vehicle shall be parked on a City street "unless the wheels of such vehicle nearest the curb or curb line are not more than twelve inches (12") distant from such curb or curb line." A.R.S. § 28-874, Additional Parking Rules, states that any person who "parks a vehicle on a roadway where there are adjacent curbs shall stop or park the vehicle with its right-hand wheels parallel to and within eighteen inches of the right-hand curb." As the City regulation directly contradicts State statute in regard to the proximity a parked vehicle needs to be in relation to the curb, twelve inches versus eighteen inches, the City ordinance conflicts with a provision of Title 28 and is therefore of no force and effect. The second ordinance 9-02-001-0016, Train Obstructing Streets, states

Any conductor, engineer, brakeman, trainman, or other person employed on or about a railroad train who shall cause or commit a train, car, locomotive, or coach on or about which he or they may be employed to obstruct any street within the limits of the City in such manner as to interfere with the ordinary travel or use of such street for more than five (5) minutes shall be responsible for a civil traffic violation.

As mentioned above, this regulation was enacted in May of 1913, and in 1913 it is possible that the Town had the authority to regulate locomotives in such a manner. Presently, however, the City lacks such authority and, as a result, this ordinance is of no legal effect. It should also be noted that this ordinance conflicts with the State statute governing obstruction of highway crossings by locomotives, A.R.S. § 40-852 making it a class two misdemeanor for "an engineer, conductor or other employee or officer of a railroad company" to permit a locomotive to "remain upon the crossing of a public highway ... so as to obstruct travel over the crossing for a period exceeding fifteen minutes" As the City ordinance directly contradicts a key provision of the State statute, an obstruction lasting five minutes versus fifteen minutes, it is void and should be repealed.

The remaining three ordinances to be renumbered and transferred to Chapter 9-01, Traffic Code, are still viable and, at least in theory, are capable of providing the Police Department and the Transportation Commission with an effective tool for regulating traffic on City streets.

Key Considerations:

Should Council vote to repeal this ordinance Flagstaff Police Officers will be instructed that they should continue to cite the applicable A.R.S. statute when they observe a person committing one of the traffic infractions currently located in Chapter 9-02.

The Police Department has reviewed this Staff Summary, the attached Ordinance and Chart, and is in favor of repealing the ordinances referenced in the attached chart.

The Traffic Engineer and the Transportation Commission have reviewed this Staff Summary, the attached Ordinance and Chart, and are both in favor of repealing the ordinances referenced in the attached chart.

Community Benefits and Considerations:

Removing superfluous prohibitions that have no legal effect from the Flagstaff City Code results in a clearer, more accessible code.

Community Involvement:

The proposed Ordinance and Staff Summary will be posted in accordance with law, and interested persons are invited to comment at the City Council meetings at which the Ordinance will be under consideration.

Financial Implications:

Violations of F.C.C. §§ 9-02-001-0001 through 9-02-001-00014 and 9-02-001-0016-0018 are all class one misdemeanors. A class one misdemeanor's maximum fine is $2500.00 plus surcharges. All but two of the A.R.S. statutes that parallel the ordinances put forth for repeal are civil traffic offenses. Civil traffic offenses carry a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $250.00, plus surcharges. The counterpart to F.C.C. 9-02-001-0011, Racing, A.R.S. § 28-708,

Racing on Highway, is a class one misdemeanor. The counterpart to F.C.C. 9-02-001-0013, Stopping for Repairs, A.R.S. § 28-7053(A)(6), Works on Vehicle other than Temporarily Disabled on Highway, is a petty offense with a maximum fine of $300.00. As the only violation put forth for repeal that has historically resulted in a substantial fine, Racing, is being replaced by another class one misdemeanor, the City can realistically expect to see no change in the fines imposed and collected by the City Court. The remainder of the sections to be repealed, including that offense being supplanted by a petty offense, would rarely, if ever, result in a fine in excess of the maximum fine that could be imposed pursuant to their A.R.S. counterpart.
